

From: dimbrogno@eshores.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 12:51pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I strongly disagree that Microsoft violated anti-trust regulations as they were originally structured. Microsoft's actions actually aided consumers and business by providing a universally recognized platform and standard in the computer world. Without it we would likely be faced with many incompatible programs with substantial expense required for conversion when transacting business with other companies. The settlement goes beyond any needed redress and should either be reduced or at most let stand as is if acceptable to Microsoft.